NEIGHBORHOOD ICE CREAM SOCIAL SEPTEMBER 12th

Come to the annual neighborhood ice cream social on Sunday, September 12th from 3:00-5:00 pm on Oakland Dr. (rain date Sunday Sept. 19th). Ice cream and toppings will be provided for sundaes. Bring your own lawn chair and cookies or brownies if you wish.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL AGENDA

3:00-3:30 Socializing and Ice Cream
3:30-5:00 Annual Business Meeting
3:30 Honey-Bunch, Clown for the Kids

LEARN ABOUT DEVELOPMENTS ON GRAND RIVER

We will update you with information about the developments on Grand River Ave. and the City's plans for Grand River improvements between Bogue Street and Brookfield Shell.

BRING YOUR NEW NEIGHBORS

If you have new neighbors in the past year, bring them to the social to be introduced.

NEIGHBORHOOD PHONE TREE UPDATE

We need to reestablish our phone tree. At the meeting we will gather phone numbers and ask for volunteers to be group leaders.

PAY YOUR DUES, WIN $25

Annual dues are $10 per family. When you pay your dues, you are eligible to win $25. Drawing will be at end of Business Meeting. You must be present to win.

ANNUAL MEETING AGENDA

- 1) Approval of Agenda
- 2) 1998 Meeting Minutes - Duncan Campbell
- 3) Treasurer's report - Nella Davis-Ray
- 4) Introduction of new neighbors
- 5) President's Report - Ed Robinson
- 6) Neighborhood Covenant - Dorothy Martin
- 7) Report on trees - Pat Robinson
- 8) Report on Grand River Ave. - Ed Robinson
- 9) Phone Tree - Dorothy Martin
- 10) Special recognition
- 11) Election of new board members
- 12) Other business

It is vitally important to the quality of life in our neighborhood that we are an active association within the city. We need a quorum of at least 25 members to conduct business at our Annual Meeting and we need board members willing to attend various city meetings and hearings which can occur several times a month. I look forward to seeing you at the Annual Meeting and to your continued participation in neighborhood business.

Ed Robinson, President
Brookfield Neighborhood Association.
